Dear Mr. Bloomfield,

Further to our telephone conversation this afternoon, I wish to confirm that I will be at your office at 2:30 p.m. on Tuesday, November 5th.

If Mr. deGrandpré can attend at your office on that day, we can explore with him the possibility of a settlement. If Mr. deGrandpré is not free, we will nevertheless meet to prepare for the hearing in the event that the case is not settled.

Yours truly,

Canadian National Telecommunications Company

Hereinafter called the Company.

J. R. White, general manager, Toronto.

Terms and conditions upon which telegraph and cable messages shall be transmitted are prescribed by Order No. 49274, dated December 5th, 1932, of the Board of Transport Commissioners for Canada and published in The Canada Gazette.

It is agreed between the sender of the message on the face of this form and this Company that said Company shall not be liable for damages arising from failure to transmit or deliver, or for any error in the transmission or delivery of any unrepeatable telegram, whether happening from negligence of its servants or otherwise, or for delays from interruptions in the working of its lines, for errors in cipher or obscure messages, or for errors from illegible writing, beyond the amount received for sending the same.

To guard against errors, the Company will repeat back any telegram for an extra payment of one-half the regular rate; and, in that case, the Company shall be liable for damages suffered by the sender to an extent not exceeding $200.00, due to the negligence of the Company in the transmission or delivery of the telegram.

Correctness in the transmission and delivery of messages can be insured by contract in writing, stating agreed amount of risk, and payment of premium thereon at the following rates, in addition to the usual charge for repeated messages, viz.: one per cent for any distance not exceeding 1,000 miles, and two per cent for any greater distance.

This Company shall not be liable for the act or omission of any other Company, but will endeavour to forward the telegram by any other Telegraph Company necessary to reaching its destination, but only as the agent of the sender and without liability therefor. The Company shall not be responsible for messages until the same are presented and accepted at one of its transmitting offices; if a message is sent to such office by one of the Company's messengers, he acts for that purpose as the sender's agent; if by telephone, the person receiving the message acts therein as agent of the sender, being authorized to assent to these conditions for the sender. This Company shall not be liable in any case for damages, unless the same be claimed, in writing, within sixty days after receipt of the telegram for transmission.

No employee of the Company shall vary the foregoing.

La Canadian National Télécommunications Company

Ci-après nommée la Compagnie.

J. R. White, directeur général, Toronto.

Les termes et conditions suivant lesquels les télégrammes et cablogrammes doivent être transmis sont prescrits par l'ordonnance no 49274 de La Commission des Transports du Canada en date du 5 décembre 1932, publiée dans la Gazette du Canada.

Il est convenu entre la Compagnie et l'expéditeur de la dépêche écrite au verso que ladite Compagnie n'encourra aucune responsabilité au delà du montant perçu pour la transmission de la dite dépêche, à l'égard de tous dommages pouvant résulter du défaut de transmission ou de livraison, ou d'une erreur dans la transmission ou la livraison de toute dépêche non répétée, que ces dommages soient imputables à la négligence des employés de la dite Compagnie ou autrement, ou à des retards causés par une interruption dans le fonctionnement de ses lignes, ou à toute erreur dans des dépêches chiffrées ou de sens obscur, ou à toute erreur due à l'écriture illisible.

Pour éviter tout risque d'erreur, la Compagnie répètera toute dépêche moyennant un versement supplémentaire de la moitié du tarif régulier, et dans ce cas, la responsabilité de la Compagnie vis-à-vis l'expéditeur sera limitée à $200. à l'égard de tous dommages dus à la négligence de la Compagnie dans la transmission ou la livraison de la dépêche.

On peut s'assurer contre tout risque d'erreur dans la transmission et la livraison des dépêches, au moyen d'un contrat écrit stipulant le montant de l'assurance, et sur paiement (en sus du taux ordinaire pour les dépêches répétées) d'une prime calculée sur la base suivante: soit, 1% du montant assuré, pour toute distance n'excédant pas 1000 milles, et 2% pour toute distance plus grande.

La dite Compagnie ne sera pas responsable du fait ou de l'omission d'une autre Compagnie, mais s'efforcera de transmettre toute dépêche par toute Compagnie de télégraphe dont il faudra se servir afin de faire parvenir la dépêche à destination, mais la Compagnie n'agira en ce cas qu'en qualité d'agent de l'expéditeur et sans assumer de responsabilité. La Compagnie n'assumera de responsabilité qu'à l'égard des dépêches présentées et acceptées à l'un de ses bureaux d'expédition; lorsqu'une dépêche est expédiée à un tel bureau par un messenger de la Compagnie, ce messenger sera sensé être l'agent de l'expéditeur; lorsqu'une dépêche est communiquée par téléphone, la personne qui la reçoit sera sensée agir pour l'expéditeur et avoir l'autorité nécessaire pour consentir aux présentes en son nom. La Compagnie ne répondra d'aucuns dommages, à moins qu'avis ne lui en soit donné par écrit dans les 60 jours qui suivront la remise de la dépêche pour transmission.

Aucun employé de la Compagnie n'a le droit de changer les présentes conditions.

Your file: E-18770

Mr. Ollivier returned yesterday from holidays and I immediately called to his attention, on the telephone today, your letter of July 24th.

As I am leaving this afternoon to attend the International Law Association Conference in Buenos Aires, as President of the Canadian Branch, it would be preferable in the opinion of Mr. Ollivier if our meeting could be set for early in September.

I hope we can fix a date for our meeting by mutual arrangement.

With kindest personal regards, I remain,

Yours sincerely,

Re: E.J. Perdon vs. Her Majesty
The Queen - Ex. Court No. A-731

Mr. de Grandpré called me this morning and stated that he would prefer our meeting to take place towards the latter part of July as he was very busy this month; however, if necessary, he could meet in June and if you could give him three alternate dates for this month, he would line it up.

My own plans will be - June 12th in Ottawa - evening of June 27th and all day June 28th in Ottawa. At all other times I expect to be available in Montreal.

Yours sincerely,

Dear Mr. Ollivier:

I acknowledge receipt of your letter of May 30th and wish to advise you that Mr. Miller and I are preparing the draft reply and hope to send it along to you in the immediate future.

There is no possibility of collecting from Persons. He is still in bankruptcy.

I had the occasion to meet Mr. de Grandpré on Sunday at a party and he would be prepared, some time later in the month, to have a meeting with you and myself to discuss the possibility of a settlement before trial. I told him that his offer was ridiculous but this, I believe, is standard practice for insurance companies.

If you will let me know when you next expect to be in Montreal, I will try and arrange a meeting with Mr. de Grandpré.

Yours sincerely,

Re: E.J. Persons vs Her Majesty
the Queen - Ex.Court No. A-731

Dear Mr. Bloomfield:

I acknowledge your letter of May 22nd enclosing copy of a letter from Mr. de Grandpré in which the latter offers to pay $20,000.00 in full settlement of the Crown's claim against his client.

This amount strikes me as being ridiculously low and I, of course, cannot recommend it to the department. I will have to give more thought to the question of how much the Crown would be prepared to accept to settle this case. I believe that before we can form an opinion in this regard, we will have to have certain information which I am now seeking from the Department of Transport. More particularly, I would like to know whether Messrs. Smith and Connelly will still be available as witnesses for the Crown. As I recall, it is only they who can establish that Persons failed to comply with the Motion of June 1st. I will therefore write to you further on this question of settlement after I have discussed the matter with the Department of Transport.

In the meantime, I would like to go on with the preparation for trial so that we may be ready to proceed in the fall in the event that no settlement is reached.

I would therefore appreciate it if you would hasten the sending of a draft reply. As soon as the Reply is filed, I would like to make a Motion to amend the Information in order to claim in the alternative the Crown's actual damages. I would appreciate it also if you would let me have a reply to the question raised in the last paragraph of my letter of May 7th.

Yours truly,

Re: Her Majesty the Queen and Fidelity
Insurance Company of Canada -

Dear Mr. Bloomfield:

Further to our telephone conversation yesterday, I wish to confirm that I would like to bring this case to a close as soon as possible. I understand that you will let me have a draft of a Reply to the Defence some time next week.

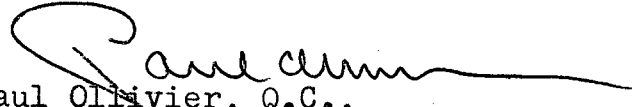

There is a term of the Court commencing on June the 11th next. I doubt that we could be ready to proceed so soon and, therefore, subject to your comments, my inclination would be to set the case down for hearing in September.

The preparation of this case for trial could involve considerable work and this may be a waste of time if the Defendant does not seriously intend to contest the action and is prepared to agree to some reasonable settlement. It therefore seems to me that before we start getting ready, we should communicate with Mr. deGrandpré and find out what are his intentions. If you agree, I would suggest that you give Mr. deGrandpré a call and possibly arrange a meeting with him. Personally, I think that if it is a case that is going to be settled, this should be done now before we go to the trouble and incur the expense of preparing for trial.

I would also appreciate it if you would let me know what is the present status of Persons and if there is any chance of recovering from him the amount of our Judgment.

Yours truly,

Dear Danny:

I acknowledge your letter of December 14th to which was attached a copy of the Plea of Fidelity Insurance Company.

The Defendant, it seems to me, does not raise any really serious grounds of defence and I think that we should endeavour to bring the case on for trial as soon as possible after the filing of our Reply.

As soon as you are in a position to do so, I would appreciate it if you would let me have a draft of an appropriate Reply.
